

Crossing the River

Across

3. Measure of how acidic or alkaline water is
9. Visible animal that lacks a backbone, such as an insect larva
11. Number of major geyser basins through which the Firehole River runs
12. A word which means hot water

Down

1. A microorganism that thrives in an environment with a superheated temperature
2. A thermal feature in Midway Geyser Basin that dumps many gallons of water into the Firehole River
4. Name of cascades where the Firehole River first meets the park road
5. Plant-like microorganisms which grow faster in warmer water
6. World famous geyser in the Upper Geyser Basin
7. The percentage of hydrothermal water in the Firehole River at the end of its run through the Yellowstone geyser basins: one _____
8. A river that runs through the geyser basins of Yellowstone.
10. Abbreviation for Ephemeroptera, Plecoptera, and Trichoptera, insect groups affected by many kinds of pollution